“Unfashionable—unrelentingly orthodox and winsomely written—is a call to follow Christ in being so biblically different from the world that the world can once again see the attractiveness of the gospel. I hope it becomes fashionable for Christians to read and discuss Unfashionable. Reading it made me glad to be a believer.”

Unfashionable would be ideal for use in small groups. The study guide at the back is thorough and the book's subject matter lends itself well to group discussion. The vision Tullian casts for us is biblical and bold. The church and the world will be better if we listen to his advice and start making a difference in the world by being different.
